

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NSA

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Tuesday - 11 April 1967

Page 4

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to say Senator John Sherman Cooper had referred to Senator James Eastland a telegram he had received from [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] saying that in June of 1966 his right leg was shattered by [redacted] of the Institute of European Studies. The telegram goes on to say [redacted] has recently admitted he

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] urges an investigation of the Agency in the hope that "no one else will be crippled." Sourwine said he would normally refer such an item to the FBI in routine fashion but, in view of the reference to the Agency, he wished to check with us first. (This is one of a number of similar telegrams which have been brought to our attention by various congressional offices. The Director of Security is investigating this case and will be in touch with us.)

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Met with Miss Ann Purcell and Miss Kay Harris, in the office of Senator William Proxmire, with regard to a constituent query forwarding a 15 March issue of "Washington Observer Newsletter." The constituent request queried use of CIA funds for political espionage during the 1964 Presidential campaign. A suggested draft response, together with various news clippings, was provided for use in responding. No written response to the Senator's transmittal note request of 5 April will be necessary.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~